

AGENDA

XXI BANKLAC:
REGIONAL POLICY DIALOGUE FOR THE BANKING SECTOR
THE CONSOLIDATION OF THE DIGITAL FINANCIAL SYSTEM*

October 22 and 23, 2024

Washington DC

REGIONAL POLICY
DIALOGUE

TUESDAY 22, OCTOBER 2024

8:00 - 8:30 Registration

8:30 - 9:00 Welcome remarks

-  Ana María Ibáñez, Vice President for Sectors and Knowledge at the Inter-American Development Bank (IDB)
-  Jorge Mogrovejo González, President at The Association of Supervisors of Banks of the Americas (ASBA)
-  Daniel Becker, President at The Latin American Federation of Banks (FELABAN)

TOPIC 1: OBJECTIVE

The panel will discuss the economic, monetary, and fiscal challenges that Latin American and Caribbean countries will face, as well as their impact on the business activity of the regional banking sector in the short and medium term.

9:00 - 10:00 Panel 1: Regional Financial Sector Outlook LATAM 2025-2026

-  Alberto Bernal, Chief Strategist at XP Investments
-  Jorge Sicilia, Chief Economist at BBVA Group and Director at BBVA Research

MODERATOR Anderson Caputo Silva, Chief of the Connectivity, Markets and Finance (CMF) Division at IDB

10:00 - 10:30 • Coffee break

TOPIC 2: OBJECTIVE

Although open finance is attracting increasing interest in Latin America and the Caribbean, there are still challenges regarding its regulatory and operational operationality. This session will discuss the opportunities and challenges of implementing open finance at the regional level.

10:30 - 11:30 Panel 2: Open Finance: Progress and Challenges

-  Ximena Alemán, CEO at Prometeo, Uruguay
-  Luis Figueroa, General Director at Prudential Regulation at the Financial Market Commission, Chile

 Luis Opazo, General Manager at the Association of Banks and Financial Institutions (ABIF), Chile

 Rosanna Ruiz, Executive President at the Association of Multiple Banks of the Dominican Republic (ABA)

MODERATOR Diego Herrera, Financial Markets Lead Specialist at IDB

TOPIC 3: OBJECTIVE

Despite the growing interest in environmental, social, and corporate governance issues in the region's financial sector, progress is uneven between countries. This panel will discuss how its correct and expeditious implementation positively impacts climate, regulation, and businesses.

11:30 - 12:30 Panel 3: ESG issues in the banking and finance sector

 Clemente del Valle, Director at the Center for Sustainable Finance at University of the Andes, Colombia

 Rocío Aguilar, Superintendent at the General Superintendence of Financial Institutions of Costa Rica

 Jonathan Malagón González, President at the Banking and Financial Institutions Association of Colombia (Asobancaria)

MODERATOR Marisela Alvarenga, Chief Investment Officer (a.i.) at IDB Invest

12:30 - 14:30 • Lunch

TOPIC 4: OBJECTIVE

More news is emerging about the progress of real-time payment systems in the region. This session will examine how instant payments can enable society to benefit from greater financial inclusion and access to the formal financial sector.

14:30 - 15:30 Panel 4: Means of payment for financial inclusion: challenges for supervision and for banks

 Ana María Prieto, Director of the Payment Systems Department at the Central Bank of Colombia

 Belline Santana, Head of the Banking Supervision Department at the Central Bank of Brazil

 Jose Manuel Mena, President at the Association of Banks and Financial Institutions (ABIF), Chile

MODERATOR Ana María Zárate, Senior Associate in Financial Markets at IDB

SPIN-OFF *

ESG AND CLIMATE-RELATED RISKS DISCLOSURE: OPPORTUNITIES AND CHALLENGES

A PERSPECTIVE FROM ISSB

Tuesday 22 October
15:30 h

Format: Hybrid, by invitation

*Aimed at regulators, banking and securities supervisors, as well as central banks. Optional for banking associations.

15:30 - 16:15 ISSB S1 and S2 Standards, an overview

-  Arora Akanksha, IFRS Foundation
-  Elizabeth Seeger, IFRS Foundation

Moderator Tatiana Alves, Green Finance Sector Lead Specialist

16:15- 17:00 A roadmap towards ISSB S1 and S2 Standards adoption

-  Arturo Rodríguez, IFRS Foundation

Moderator Hilén Meirovich, Climate Change Director at IDB Invest

17:00 - 18:00 ● Networking event

WEDNESDAY 23, OCTOBER 2024

8:00 - 8:30 Registration

TOPIC 5: OBJECTIVE

The adoption of Basel III prudential banking standards in Latin America and the Caribbean is progressing unevenly. This panel will discuss the regulatory priorities of some countries in the region and the costs incurred by the banking sector derived from their adoption and implementation.

8:30 - 9:30 Panel 5: Regulatory priorities of Latin American banking

-  César Tamayo, Dean of the School of Finance, Economics and Government at EAFIT University, Colombia
-  Ivette Espinoza Vasquez, Executive General Director of the Financial System Supervision Authority, Bolivia
-  Martín Naranjo Landerer, President of the Board of Directors at the Association of Banks of Peru (ASBANC)

MODERATOR Diego Herrera, Financial Markets Lead Specialist at IDB

TOPIC 6: OBJECTIVE

In a more interconnected and digital financial world, concerns about cybersecurity, fraud levels, and the integrity of technological systems in banking are increasingly relevant. This session will discuss how the collaboration of the public and private sectors is crucial in mitigating fraud in financial transactions.

9:30 - 10:30 Panel 6: Cybersecurity and digital fraud

-  Ariel Nowersztern, Sector Senior Specialist in Cybersecurity at IDB
-  Juan Pedro Cantera, Superintendent of the Central Bank of Uruguay
-  Cristian Eyzaguirre, National Manager of Integrated Risk Management of Banco Unión, Bolivia

MODERATOR Terence Gallagher, Head of Financial Inclusion at IDB Invest

10:30 - 11:00 ● Coffee break

TOPIC 7: OBJECTIVE

Although artificial intelligence holds more and more promise for banks regarding process optimization and cost efficiency, challenges remain regarding its correct implementation and the absence of clear regulatory frameworks. This conference will discuss the risks and opportunities arising from using and implementing Artificial Intelligence in the banking sector.

11:00 - 12:00 Panel 7: Artificial Intelligence in the banking sector: risks, opportunities and success stories

 Juan Carlos Crisanto, Deputy Chairman del Financial Stability Institute (FSI)

MODERATOR César Buenadicha, Chief of Discovery Unit at IDB Lab

12:00 - 12:30 Presentation: Open Finance Implementation. The case of Chile

 Claudia Sotelo, Head of Financial Innovation Center at Financial Market Commission of Chile

MODERATOR Jose Manuel Mena, President of the Association of Banks and Financial Institutions (ABIF), Chile

12:30 - 12:45 Closing remarks

 Anderson Caputo, Chief of the Connectivity, Markets and Finance (CMF) Division at IDB

 Pascual O'Dogherty, Secretary General at the Association of Supervisors of Banks of the Americas (ASBA)

 Giorgio Trettenero Castro, Secretary general at the Latin American Federation of Banks (FELABAN)